what makes you stand out ?

This is the basic question to answer for any application. Think about your life. What motivates you? What keeps you going? Now write that down so that we can feel your passion.

Let's talk about what makes you stand out

We will begin with an introduction session where I go over the basics of what you will need in order to start your application process. From there a schedule is developed where we map out your application process including the relevant tests and interviews.
